

Superb performances from John C. Reilly and Steve Coogan as the aging comedy duo who attempt to reignite their failing career with a tour of British variety clubs in 1953. A real delight with genuinely touching moments.

Dir. John S. Baird (US 2018 98mins 12)

Friday 7 June 7.30 | £5 | Southgate Theatre, Honley

Ollie & Stan

Unpredictable, thrilling and decidedly memorable, definitely one of the best films of the year. An original and strange fairy tale for our times. Full of humour, intrigue, suspense and even horror, it centres on a female customs officer who can smell guilt.

Dir. Ali Abbas (Sweden 2018 110mins 15)

Friday 7 June 7.30 | £5 | Carlisle Institute, Meltham

Border

From the same team that produced last year's highlight about two brothers and sheep, this absolute gem was Iceland's entry to the Oscars. A near perfect Fargo-like social drama with great acting, complex, tender and ironic tale of neighbourly disputes that is also tragic.

Dir. Halsteinn Gunnar Sigurdsson (Iceland 2017 88mins 15)

Friday 7 June 7.30 | £5 | Hepworth Village Hall

Under the Tree

Beautifully shot BAFTA short film winner. UK farmer Jay Wilde gave his beef herd to an animal sanctuary when he decided to change to sustainable, organic, vegan farming.

Dir. Alex Lockwood (UK 2018 15mins 12)

Friday 7 June 7.30 | £5 | Lesser Civic Hall, Holmfirth

73 Cows

Produced by Natalie Portman and based on Jonathan Safran Foer's book, this powerful and moving documentary traces the history of food production in the US and the global environmental disaster that is corporate factory farming. Trumpets support for traditional farming values.

Dir. Christopher Dillon Quinn (US 2018 95mins 12)

Eating Animals

An impassioned film about much more than journalism. At its centre is a fine performance from Rosamund Pike as the celebrated, complex, fierce but flawed war correspondent Marie Colvin whose humanity shines through amidst the utter destruction of the many conflicts she covered.

Dir. Matthew Heineman (US 2018 110mins 12)

Friday 7 June 7.00 | £5 | Large Civic Hall, Holmfirth

FRIDAY 7 JUNE

holmfirth film festival

10th Anniversary Weekend

Friday 7 June - Sunday 9 June 2019

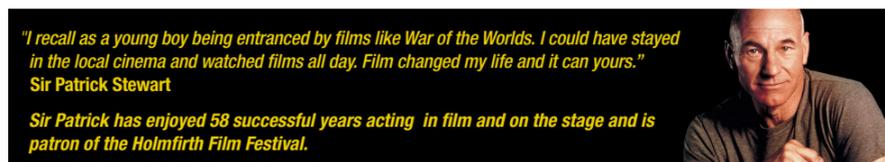

Help us celebrate our tenth anniversary with a sumptuous selection of the year's best films, classics and undiscovered gems. We face new problems with streaming via Netflix meaning that some films are not available to us but we remain committed to bringing to the Valley the best of world cinema and believe that seeing a film on a big screen as part of an audience remains a great community experience. Funding is more difficult but we are supported by the BFI (Film Hub North), local venues and businesses, Councilor Sims' Community Fund, the Parish Council and Longley Farm without whom we would not exist.

Putting on the Festival involves a huge effort and thanks are due to the volunteers on the organising Committee and those during the Festival itself who make it such a success. We are always looking for more, especially on the technical side, if interested contact via the website. There will be another Weekend Event in the autumn with the 50th Anniversary of the beginning of 'The Troubles' in Ireland and 'The Golden Age of Television?' are key themes.

Successful monthly Sunday Night screenings at the Civic Hall resume with a new season in July.

Hope you find inspiration and enjoyment in the festival!

Stephen Dorril, Festival Director

Q&A with Kieran Hodgson

Friday 7 Jun, 4.00 | FREE EVENT | Lesser Civic Hall, Holmfirth

Currently touring his critically acclaimed show, '75, on the 70s' EEC Referendum, this is a chance to hear and ask the Holmfirth born actor, writer and comedian about his career and how he got to where he is. Twice nominated for the Edinburgh Comedy Awards, the BBC's Two Doors Down, playing Ian Lavender in The Dad's Army Story and the Alan Partridge show.

My Favourite Film:
Kieran Hodgson introduces Danton

Friday 7 June, 7.00 | £5 | Picturedrome, Holmfirth

Dir. Andrzej Wajda (France 1983 136mins 12)

Holmfirth's own comedic actor introduces what Stanley Kubrick called the 'Best historical drama ever made'.

The last weeks of one of the leaders of the French Revolution, George Danton, brilliantly played by Gerard Depardieu, and his battle with Robespierre in what is an overwhelming indictment of government oppression. The great Polish director created an Oscar winning film that still today, holds a mirror to the past and to the present.

Ladies Wot Lunch: Il Postino: The Postman

Friday 7 June, Lunches start 12.00 Film 2.30 | Lunch & Film £15
Film only £6 | Picturedrome, Holmfirth & Participating restaurants in Holmfirth

Dir. Massimo Troisi, Michael Radford (Italy 1994 114mins 12)

Re-released and remastered, this is one of the most romantic films ever made. Set in a beautiful looking 1950s Italy, a moving tale of poetry, love and friendship, made ever more poignant by the knowledge that the actor Massimo Troisi, playing the poorly-educated Postman, died the day after filming ended.

Panique

Friday 7 June, 2.00 | £5 | Lesser Civic Hall, Holmfirth

Dir. Julien Duvivier (France 1946 91mins 12)

Based on a George Simenon novel, this is a beautifully crafted, superbly acted shadowy film noir of great power. A middle aged man falls for his neighbour only to be framed for murder by her lover. Remastered and re-released, Duvivier's first film back in France after working in Hollywood is a critique of mobs and collaboration.

Dr Simpo's Afternoon Animation Screening: Mirai

Saturday 8 June, 1.00 | FREE EVENT | Picturedrome, Holmfirth

Dir. Mamoru Hosoda (Japan 2018, 98mins PG)

Set in the 1980s, a spoilt-rotten son sees his baby sister as competition for his parents' love in a film that easily moves through the generations. Hosoda latest anime classic is a dazzling, ravishing, emotional and dreamy look at the importance of family.

Darkness and Light - animation film for the Our Biennale arts festival by young people at Almondbury Community School with visuals from five schools across Kirklees including Holmfirth's Junior, Infant and Nursery school reflecting the landscape, history and myths of the local area.

Film and Book: A Month in the Country

Saturday 8 June, 2.00 | £5 | Hepworth Village Hall

Dir. Pat O'Connor (UK 1987, 96mins PG)

Starring Colin Firth and Kenneth Branagh in their first film, this is a captivating adaption of J. L. Carr's novel set in Yorkshire in 1920 about former soldiers scarred by their experiences. Excellent English romanticism rarely seen but now re-released and remastered after the original print was feared lost. Read the book, then see the film.

Followed by a discussion led by the Two Valleys Book Club.

The 317th Platoon

Saturday 8 June, 4.00 | £5 | Picturedrome, Holmfirth

Dir. Pierre Schoenderffer (France 1965, 100mins 12)

Rare screening for what is often cited as the greatest war film ever made and the model for many films in that genre. Shot in Cambodia as the US involvement in the Vietnam War was beginning, the writer/director draws on his own experiences as a French soldier in the Indo-China war in 1954 and as a war photographer.

The Guilty

Saturday 8 June 7.30 | £5 | Hepworth Village Hall

Dir. Gustave Moller (Denmark 2018, 8mins 15)

Denmark's entry to the Oscars is a gripping abduction thriller filmed in real time. The Guardian said it was a 'masterclass in wringing breathless tension from just a few key ingredients' - man in a room, a female and a gun. Excellent direction, editing and superb central performance by Jakob Cedergren.

Burning

Saturday 8 June 7.00 | £5 | Lesser Civic Hall, Holmfirth

Dir. Lee Chong-dong (South Korea 2018, 148mins 15)

Top of the critics' list as the best film of the year. A slow burning Hitchcockian mystery thriller about obsessive love that is ultimately mesmerising and hard to get out your head. Bravura, chilling performances and a master director at the top of the international tree.

The Old Man and the Gun

Saturday 8 June 7.30 | £5 | Southgate Theatre, Honley

Dir. David Lowery (US 2018, 94mins 12)

This swansong to Robert Redford is probably the most enjoyable film of the year. Beautifully acted, the ease of Redford is matched by Sissy Spacek in a 'mostly true' tale of an elderly, gentleman bank robber coming to the end of his days. Wonderfully directed in '70s style.

An afternoon of films and discussion: Climate Emergency and the Holmfirth Roads Access Plan

Saturday 8 June, 12.00-5.00 | FREE EVENT | Large Civic Hall, Holmfirth

12.30 Koyaanisqatsi

Dir. Godfrey Reggio (US 1983, 86mins PG)

Hopi word for 'life out of balance'. Unforgettable cinematic experience with a brilliant Philip Glass soundtrack. Extensive footage of landscapes and elemental forces contrasted with modern cities and technology showing how humanity has grown apart from nature.

2.00 Genre de Vie

Dirs. Sven Prince, Jorrit Spoelstra (Holland, 2012 35mins)

Urban life, personal awareness and the powerful simplicity of bicycles. Smart Cities: Palo Alto city leaders explain the need to think differently about congestion, pollution and government using smart technology.

3.00 Discussion

Opportunity to openly discuss the Kirklees Road Access Plan for Holmfirth. Panel led by Holmfirth Transition Town (HOTT), Huddersfield Friends of the Earth, campaign against the Plan and the Green Party.

Amsterdam children fighting cars: In 1972 children fought for a street free of cars. It is now tree lined. Wonderful.

Northern independent film makers...

2.00 Dan Cadan

Saturday 8 June | FREE EVENT | Lesser Civic Hall, Holmfirth

Huddersfield born director and screenwriter Dan Cadan leads a panel of independent film-makers to discuss their own experiences and on how to get into the industry. Ryan Simons (Director) and Jamie Cymal (Producer) of Quickfoot Media talk about their supernatural horror, Demon Eye (2019), filmed in Huddersfield and just taken up for American release, and Chris Birks, director of One Bright Dot, Yorkshire's leading post production facility for independent films.

Cadan, writer of The Devil's Wedding (2009) and Snatch (2000), introduces his latest film.

4.00 Walk like a Panther

(UK 2018, 104mins 12)

Local wrestlers suit up for the last time when their beloved pub is threatened with closure in true Brit comedy. Filmed in Marsden, Meltham and Huddersfield with a great 80s soundtrack.

Saturday Night at the Movies: The Blockbusters

Spider-Man: Into the Spider-Verse

Saturday 8 June, 7.30 | £5 Children/Students: £4 | Large Civic Hall, Holmfirth

Dirs. Bob Persichetti, Peter Ramsey, Rodney Rothman (US 2018, 114mins PG)

Not usual festival fair but this was one of the highlights of the year and deserved an Oscar. Smart, funny, intelligent and hugely entertaining spin on the Spiderman enterprise. Great family film.

Bohemian Rhapsody

Saturday 8 June, 7.00 | £5 Picturedrome, Holmfirth

Dir. Bryan Singer (US 2018, 133mins 12)

If you haven't seen it or have only seen it five times, here's the most popular and entertaining film of the year. Rami Malek as Freddy Mercury is extraordinary. A film that borders on kitsch somehow manages to turn into a thrilling and meaningful movie.

A Star is Born

Saturday 8 June, 7.30 | £5 Carlile Institute, Meltham

Dir. Bradley Cooper (US 2018, 134mins 15)

A very good and precise directorial debut from Cooper who also stars in this moving tear-jerker musical love story with an excellent Lady Gaga, the young musician who finds fame as her mentor is dragged down by age and alcoholism.

Local Film & Holmfirth Histories: An all-day celebration

Sunday 9 June, 12.00-6.00 | £10 Ticket includes entry to all events/venues: Picturedrome, Large & Lesser Civic Hall, Holmfirth Tec

A cornucopia of local historic films, photographic exhibitions and talks. The events take place throughout the afternoon on a continuous roll in six different venues.

Tony Earnshaw on Films made in Yorkshire, Ian Baxter and Lucy Fairbanks, Miss Lockwood, Bailey's Bath, John Murray's films, Walk and Film Talks, Bamforth, Andrew Sanderson, Brian Lawton and Holmfirth Camera Club photographs, and lots more ... celebrating the Holme Valley as a special place.

Ticket/Website includes a full programme of the day's activities and events.

Donbass

Sunday 9 June, 2.00 | £5 | Southgate Theatre, Honley

Dir. Sergei Loznika (Ukraine 2018, 121mins 15)

This Foreign Language Oscar nominee and Cannes winner is a freakish documentary-like drama on the civil war in Ukraine's eastern region, where lawless fanatics in control of gangs unleash open conflict, crimes and looting. A kaleidoscope of fake-news and degradation: war film of the year.

The Captain

Sunday 9 June, 2.00 | £5 | Carlile Institute, Meltham

Dir. Robert Schwentke (Germany 2018, 119mins 15)

Or is this powerful and unsettling political satire the war film of the year? True story of a German deserter in the last days of the war who embarks on a brutal odyssey putting on the uniform of a SS officer. A chilling performance from Max Hubacher as the Captain.

An afternoon of delights...

Alice in Wonderland and the best short films

Sunday 9 June, 2.00 | FREE EVENT | Hepworth Village Hall

Dir. Jonathan Miller (UK 1966, 70mins PG)

An extraordinary, unsettling and starkly imaginative version of the Lewis Carroll tale. Not only different from the others but by far the best. First aired on the BBC on 28 December 1966 and starring a whole host of 60s British actors, it challenges the notion that we are now living in a golden age of television.

Along with a selection of the very best short films screened by the Festival over the past ten years.

The Mexican Suitcase

Sunday 9 June, 7.30 | £5 | Hepworth Village Hall

Dir. Trisha Ziff (Mexico 2011, 86mins 12)

This proved to be one of the most popular documentaries previously screened by the Festival - and deservedly so. The story of three lost boxes discovered in Mexico in 2007. The boxes, misplaced in the chaos of WWII, contained 4,400 negatives of the war photographers of Spanish Civil War, including those of Robert Capra. Beautiful score by Michael Nyman.

Can You Ever Forgive Me?

Sunday 9 June, 7.30 | £5 | Lesser Civic Hall, Holmfirth

Dir. Marielle Heller (US 2018, 107mins 12)

True story of hard-drinking and broke author, Lee Israel (an excellent Melissa McCarthy), who hatches a scheme with fellow boozer, a typically great performance from Richard E. Grant, to sell fake celebrity letters. Rich in character, funny, sad, and hugely enjoyable.

Fundraiser for Holme Valley Mountain Rescue Team: Free Solo

Sunday 9 June, 7.00 | £5 | Large Civic Hall, Holmfirth

Dir. Jimmy Chin, Elizabeth Chai Vasarhelyi (US 2018, 100mins 15)

Oscar winning documentary of the year sees Alex Honnold attempt to conquer El Capitan's 900 metre vertical rock face, in Yosemite National Park, without a rope. More than a climbing film, this is a breathless and astonishing story of perseverance.

Green Book

Sunday 9 June, 7.30 | £5 | Southgate Theatre, Honley

Dir. Peter Farrelly (US 2018, 130mins 12)

A working-class Italian-American bouncer chauffeurs a highly educated Afro-American classical pianist around the racially segregated South. Likeable, funny with a warm heart and two very good lead actors.

Dogman

Sunday 8 June, 7.30 | £5 | Carlile Institute, Meltham

Dir. Matteo Garrone (Italy 2018, 98mins 15)

In a run-down seaside town a dog groomer commits petty crimes for a former boxer who terrorises the neighbourhood. Winner of Best Actor at Cannes, Marcello Fonte is brilliant as the naive, small man who takes on the big bully in what is really a great modern western.
